Contest Rules

1. The shooting contest is open to all women and men who are 19 years or older. (Participation in the costume contest is optional and not required of registered shooting contestants.)
2. Separate shooting contests will be held for women (“Classic Annie”) and men (“Classic Frank”).
3. The contest registration fee is $15 .
4. The completed registration form and check should be mailed by July 16 to AOCF, PO Box 1025, Greenville, OH 45331. If later, bring the form and payment to the registration table at the event. Make checks for $15.00 payable to: Annie Oakley Center Foundation.
5. On-site registration and entry fee collection will be available at the event. Walk-in registrations are welcomed.
6. Contestants must shoot from a standing position.
7. All contestants must use the same BB guns as provided by the Annie Oakley Committee.
8. Shooting will begin at 25 feet and move back at pre-established lengths for each round.
9. Contestants will aim at inflated balloons with a BB gun and attempt to burst the balloon. Contestants will be given 2 chances to break the balloon target. The balloon must break to advance. The judging committee reserves the right to advance contestants if the balloon is hit by BB but did not break. This would be considered a broken balloon.
10. An optional practice session (contestants shooting one at a time) will begin prior to the event on Friday, July 23 at 4:30 and end promptly at 6:15.
11. Costumes (optional) will be judged on originality, appropriateness to the time period of Annie Oakley and overall costume appearance.
12. A cash prize and medallion will be awarded to first, second, and third place shooting finishers. First place costume contestants will be awarded a gift basket of Annie Oakley related mementos.
13. The Annie Oakley Center Foundation Shooting Contest Committee reserves the right to amend the above mentioned rules and procedures as needed. All decisions by this committee will be final.
